

June 9, 2009

To Whom It May Concern,

I hired Matthew to do some roaming magic at our opening party this spring. I had invited over one hundred and fifty guests and we were featuring a twelve piece band and multiple food stations. I had high expectations for this party.

I have always been a skeptic about magic so I was very nervous about hiring a magician as I wanted our opening party to be perfect. I had asked Mathew to mix in with the crowd and be discreet. As it turned out Matthew absolutely blew my expectations out of the water. His professional manner was outstanding and his magic was truly mind blowing. I am still, three weeks later, thinking about many of the magic tricks Matthew performed. He was amazing.

I highly recommend Matthew Johnson for any corporate party or gathering and I will most certainly be hiring Mathew again in the future. I guarantee you won't be disappointed if you hire Matthew Johnson for your next corporate event.

Sincerely,

Gordon Bell

Managing Partner